My mum got a lot of enjoyment from going on canal holidays when she was little. We jumped up and down with excitement when she told us that we were going to go on one too.

A week before we were meant to go, we got a letter. Mum read the letter out loud.

"It is with great disappointment that I'm writing to let you know that the boat you booked has broken. We would like to offer you an even bigger boat as a replacement. We hope you will be happy with this. Kind regards, Canal Holiday Company."

"Oh well," said Mum. "They have handled it with fairness and it will be nice to have some more room. It can be quite a squeeze on those boats. You'll soon learn that tidiness is very important!" she laughed.

Mum read the last part of the letter.

"Oh, goodness me! I have forgotten to make the last payment! I'd better phone them now, otherwise we won't be able to go on our holiday," Mum said as she grabbed her phone.

Mum got off the phone and was smiling with happiness.

"It's OK," she said, "I've made the payment so we can still go."

"Hooray!" we shouted. We can't wait for our canal holiday!
